Whitefish, Montana Home Named Top 10 U.S. Ski Home

Trails West Real Estate announced today that their Elk Highlands Retreat listing at 1059 Whispering Pines Lane, Whitefish Montana was recently named one of the Top Ten Most Spectacular Ski Homes in the United States by www.TopTenRealEstateDeals.com. The ski homes list was launched by the internet real estate media company to highlight U.S. ski towns and showcase ten of the most spectacular ski homes in the world.

Construction of the ski-in and ski-out inspiration features 100-year-old mine shaft timbers with cosmopolitan flourishes throughout the home. From its lofty site, Elk Highlands Retreat has panoramic views of Glacier Park, the Columbia Mountains, Whitefish Mountain Resort, and Whitefish Lake.

According to www.TopTenRealEstateDeals.com Marketing Director Jason Wakefield, the ski homes list was a project involving hours of web searches and contacts with ski home experts and agents to identify the top picks of ski homes that are currently for sale. In addition to the Elk Highlands Retreat, the list includes President Gerald Ford's home in Beaver Creek, Colorado and eight other spectacular homes ranging in price from $3,900,000 to $35,000,000.

"What better occasion to launch a ski homes list than the 2010 Winter Olympics," said Wakefield. "The Olympics are a culmination of dreams by dreamers. In honor of that spirit, we present this list to all of us who dare to dream, whether Olympic athlete or weekend skier."
