Trails West Realtors, Susan Kratt, Tracey Gembala, and Lamont Kinkade, recently earned the Workforce Housing Specialist Certification (WHS) from the Montana Association of Realtors.

The Montana Workforce Housing Specialist Certification is a newly designed certificate to educate Realtors about local state and workforce housing programs that will meet the need of Montanans.

Realtors who are certified as a WHS have received advanced training covering a variety of subjects including predatory lending, local, state and federal assistance programs, home buyer education, and housing counseling.

With this certification, Realtors are able to professionally assist moderate income home buyers secure specialty home financing programs thus helping them achieve the dream of home ownership.

Trails West Real Estate is proud of Susan, Tracey and Lamont for completing this course thus expanding their knowledge and ability to assist homebuyers in the Flathead Valley.

For information or assistance, please call Susan Kratt, Tracey Gembala or Lamont Kinkade at Trails West Real Estate, (406) 837 7050 or visit them on the web at www.TrailsWestRealEstate.com
